

Review for Feminist Philosophy Final exam:

Some suggestions as to what and how to study: make a list of main themes and concepts for each author. Re-read sections of essays and class notes. Pay attention to specific vocabulary used by each author. Part of the exam will be made up of passages from the following authors:

Authors to study:

Nawal El Saadawi:

Assia Djebar:

Marilyn Frye:

Gloria Anzaldua:

bell hooks:

Trinh, Minh-ha:

Andrea Dworkin:

Sandra Harding:

Judith Butler:

Judith/Jack Halberstam

Using your own words, write brief definitions of the following terms used in feminist theory. Be sure to link each term with one or two philosophers we have read thus far. (3-6 sentences for each term).

Vocabulary:

Imperialism:

Colonialism:

Post-colonialism:

Phenomenology:

Epistemology:

Oppression:

Performing gender:

Race:

Gender:

Standpoint theory:

Pornography:

Mestiza:

Feminist phenomenology:

Illocutionary act:

Constituting act:

Hegemony:

Hybridity:

Third wave feminism:

Paradigm:

Orientalism:

Sexism:

Miss; Mrs.; Ms.

Chicana:

“Personal is political”

Gender Queer

Gender Variance

History/story